The Hagerman Group Promotes Greene and Hall

INDIANAPOLIS – As part of a strategic initiative to put the right individuals with the right talents in the right positions, The Hagerman Group is pleased to announce the promotion of longtime employees Terry Greene and Dave Hall.

Terry Greene has been promoted to the role of president of GDH, the construction management subsidiary of The Hagerman Group. Formerly executive vice president of construction for GDH, Greene has been at The Hagerman Group for more than 19 years.

Terry Greene

Projects managed by Greene during his career include Circle Centre Mall, Eugene and Marilyn Glick Indiana History Center and several Ivy Tech Community College facilities throughout Indiana.

Dave Hall has been promoted to the role of executive vice president of corporate development for The Hagerman Group. In his new role Hall is responsible for innovative strategic initiatives at The Hagerman Group, namely the advancement of four corporate initiatives: Green Building Commitment, Diversity Initiative, Institutionalized Learning and Forum for the Future, an innovation incubator.

Dave Hall

Formerly executive vice president of preconstruction for GDH, Hall has been at The Hagerman Group for more than 24 years. Projects lead by Dave during his career include Eli Lilly Corporate Center, the Indianapolis Zoo and Jordan Hall of Science at the University of Notre Dame.

Greene and Hall have both been in the construction industry for more than 35 years.

The Hagerman Group

The Hagerman Group offers general contracting, construction management, design-build and green-build services in addition to masonry, concrete and carpentry. Comprised of Hagerman Construction, Hagerman Inc. and GDH, the firm has offices in Fort Wayne, Indianapolis and Lafayette.
