Ivy Tech selects The Hagerman Group as Construction Manager

WARSAW – GDH of The Hagerman Group is construction manager for Ivy Tech Community College's $10 million new classroom building in Warsaw, Indiana.

Design will begin this fall and construction will begin in June 2010 with completion scheduled for August 2011. Hagerman has been awarded three of the College's last six construction projects. The project will include a new 40,000 square-foot building with general classrooms, teaching labs, computer and science labs, , student commons and wellness center.

Ivy Tech Community College-North Central serves Elkhart, Kosciusko, Marshall, and St. Joseph counties with three full-service campuses. Approximately 1,500 students are enrolled at the Warsaw campus; 2,000 at Elkhart; and 5,600 at South Bend.

GDH, Hagerman Construction Corp. and Hagerman Inc. are part of The Hagerman Group, a general contractor and construction manager founded in 1908 with three Indiana offices located in Fort Wayne, Fishers and Lafayette.
